Try those Ungeod Jinger Wafers, at Carnes' store. They are delicious.

Mr. Louis Wagener returned last Wednesday from Marlin, looking much improved from his trip.

The Cemetery Tea.

In spite of the rain there was a good attendance of ladies last Friday evening at the tea given by Mrs. Dr. S. F. Nave, complimentary to the Ladies' Cemetery Association. There was plenty of nice salads and tea and coffee served by Mrs. Nave and Miss Habermacher. The ladies all enjoyed the affair very much and look forward to the next tea with considerable interest.

Goods at Cost Price.

All Summer Goods and especially Ladies' Hats, Skirts and Shirt Waists, etc.

O. H. Deutsch.

John B. Richelle of Dreyer, Gonzales county, was here today on business. John is an old citizen, having come here in 1852 from France. He says he voted first for James Buchanan for president and has been a democrat ever since.—Cuero Record.

John was in Shiner the other day and loves democracy so well that he paid for a year subscription to The Gazette.

Clothing for men and boys, in latest styles and lowest prices, at Wolters' Bros.

The Gazette was struck somewhat lately by the eccentric behavior of Mr. G. W. Eschenburg and upon investigation as to the cause we learned that Mrs. Eschenburg and the baby had been absent for a week at Weimar, visiting relatives. Cheer up, Gus, the longest day must have an ending.

Go to Wagener & Schuhmann's and get a dozen beauty pins for only 10 cents.

The William Tell Club of Wittig will give their grand Feast and inaugural shoot for the William Tell Trophy, individual rifle championship of Lavaca county, on August 12.

Shooting will begin at 9:30 a. m. sharp. For further particulars address G. Korges, Sealy, Wittig, Texas.

Subscribe for the Delineator Fashion Magazine, only $1.00 a year, at Wolters' Bros.

Mr. E. J. Mair, agent for the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, received a check last Monday for $113.00 to be paid to the estate of Mrs. Maria Kasper. The amount was paid on a lapsed policy. The Manhattan is an old reliable company and is a good company to tie to.

Ladies' dress shoes, from $1.00 to $2.75 a pair, at Wagener & Schuhmann's.

One of the heaviest rains of the season fell in Shiner last Friday night and continued part of Saturday. Showers also fell on Sunday and Monday. A great deal of hay and fodder has been ruined and cotton will be damaged unless the showers cease at once.

Just received, and for sale, a car load of the celebrated Buckeye Mowers, at Eschenburg & Böhm's.

Miss Marion Seydel, who has been visiting in Shiner during the past week, returned to her home in Weimar last Saturday. Mr. Robt. Seydel, her brother, accompanied her home and returned Monday morning on the "flyer."

Just received, Grape Nuts, a food for brain and nerve centers. Try some, at Carnes' Cash Store.

Populist Convention.

A populist-independent convention was held at Williamsburg recently, at which every precinct in the county except Shiner, Moulton and Hockberry, were represented. A delegate was appointed to the state convention (populist) at Waco and also to the senatorial convention. Resolutions were adopted and a committee appointed to select a county ticket. It is given out that every man on the democratic ticket will have an opponent, except Green, Long and Deaville.

News Snap Shots.

Prince Tann seems to be the Mark Hanna of Chinese politics at this time. He is not only raising trouble, but he seems to have the ear of the Chinese administration.

When it comes to administering on the coast of China it is possible that Japan will be on hand with a very large claim. Japan needs land in the vicinity of China.

Now that the paramount issue has been set both the silver issue located in the platform to the satisfaction of gold democrats, the time is ripe in Texas to build cotton mills.—Galveston News.

Patents Granted Texas.

E. G. Siggers, patent lawyer, Washington, D. C., reports the following patents granted to inventors in the State of Texas, July 3, 1900. He will mail copy of specification and drawings of any patent for 10 cents in stamps.

A. Brady, Galveston, bicycle gear; E. D. Carter, Brenham, roller compress; H. P. Davis and N. F. Davis, Houston, machine for making mattresses; W. V. Dean, Valley Mills, milk cooler; J. H. Hobart, El Paso, fuel economizer; J. G. Hughes, Port Arthur, splint; T. J. Russell, Woodville, fireplate feeder; W. R. Welke and M. Biederspecht, Dallas, churn; A. Werner, New Braunfels, corn husking machine; M. and C. Zollner, Fort Worth, patent seedling machine; draft equalizer.

Work on the Wolters' Bros. new building is progressing favorably and will be a great convenience to this enterprising firm when completed, as they are badly crowded from lack of room to store their immense stock of goods.
